Art Unit: 1626

The finality of the office action mailed July 31, 2006 is withdrawn in view of the new rejection which follows.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 6 to 8 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bourdais (FR 2121394), cited by applicants.

Determination of the scope and content of the prior art (MPEP §2141.01)

The reference discloses structurally similar compounds that are useful as medicaments. The compound of the reference is structurally similar to the claimed compounds wherein X is S, R¹ to R⁴ is H or alkyl and R⁵ is indolyl that is substituted by alkyl and CF₃. Note Example 11 on page 7.

Ascertainment of the difference between the prior art and the claims (MPEP §2141.02)

The compound of the reference differs from that claimed in that it is a homolog. For example, one of R¹ to R⁴ is H instead of methyl or the 2-position of the indolyl radical is substituted by methyl instead of ethyl.

Art Unit: 1626

Finding of prima facie obviousness---rational and motivation (MPEP §2142-2413)

It has been held that homologs are obvious over one another. Note In re Wood, 199 USPQ 137. One of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to make the claimed compounds with the expectation that they would also be useful as medicaments. The claimed compounds and pharmaceutical compositions would have been rendered obvious by the homolog of the reference in the absence of any unobvious property.

Claim 12 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
